

Until solicitors start paying my phone bill they have no right to use my phone without my permission. These calls tie up my line so that ill and elderly who need my help cannot reach me in a timely fashion. I resent my life being interrupted by persons whose attention I do not want or need. Leave Indiana's Privacy Laws alone.